BROWNING & DICKINSON TOURNAMENT

The Browning & Dickinson golf tournament was held at Bally Haly over the weekend. This event also serves as the qualifier for the division match play championships that will be played over the summer. The top 16 players in each division have qualified for the match play eliminations. The winner of the Browning Trophy for low gross was Rayner Lamb who carded a 147 and beat Rob Efford by three strokes. In Division B, Tom Curran won with a 159 total three ahead of Bill Neville Jr. Bill Hearn won Division C with 169, two ahead of Dave Hart. In Division D Dave Lush beat Dave Nickerson in a playoff after both shot 183 totals.

PROVINCIAL MEN'S AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

Three years ago he was provincial junior champion. Now Rob Efford of Bally Haly can add the Newfoundland Men's Amateur golf championship to his resume. The 21 year old Efford beat former champion George Dolomont of the tournament host Blomidon Golf Club in a sudden death playoff to take the title. Efford claimed the crown by ending the playoff quickly, making a birdie on the first hole while Dolomont managed a par. He entered the fourth and final day of competition three strokes behind Dolomont but conquered a windy course with a one over par 71 to finish with a 283 total. Dolomont shot 74.

The two will lead Newfoundland men's team at the Canadian Amateur championships at the Riverside Club in Saint John, New Brunswick, August 19 to 22. This is the 1st team for Efford and the 7th team for Dolomont. Also on the team are Glen Burke of Harmon, for the 4th time, who shot 71 for a 288 total and Mike Mullins of Blomidon, for the 2nd time, who shot 79 for a 291 total. George Chaulk of Harmon finished in fifth place at 293 and will be the team alternate.

Rob Efford was chosen by the Evening Telegram's sports department as the Athlete of the Week because of his victory in the Newfoundland Amateur championship. He is the youngest ever to win this honour.

CANADIAN MID-AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIPS

Newfoundland finished ninth with a 336 total at the Canadian Mid-Amateur inter-provincial team golf championship which was held at the Glendale Golf and County Club in Edmonton. Quebec won with a total of 283. The team of Dave Dyer, Bill Hryniw and Keith Rose, all from Bally Haly, won the right to represent the province at the tournament, for players 40 years of age and older, with the top three finishes in the Newfoundland Mid-Amateur championship held at the Bally Haly Golf Course last summer.

Hryniw lead Newfoundland with 84 and 79 for a 163 total and was followed by Dyer at 173, 89 and 84, and Rose at 180, 89 and 91. Hryniw finished 61st in the field and advanced to the match play competition, but was defeated by the number four seed from Calgary.

Junior competitions were held throughout the year and some of the results are as follows.

CANADIAN LADIES' CLUB TEAM COMPETITION

The Bally Haly Golf & Curling Club in St. John's was a beehive of activity August 29 to 31. The twenty teams competing for honours in the Ladies National Club Teams Championship assembled at the club house Saturday evening to get acquainted with their competitors, meet committee persons and enjoy the hospitality of the Bally Haly Ladies Division. Sunday morning the weatherman refused to co-operate thus the National Executive members had a meeting and decided to revert to the format of previous years and make Day 1 an official practice round and call the championship for two 9-hole rounds on Monday. Most players donned their rain wear and teed off, many finished the 18 hole practice, many did not finish as the weather continued to deteriorate. All involved returned to the club house Sunday evening where a buffet of scrumptious seafood, cold cuts, salads and sweets, a draw for the Shell Canada gift basket and some of the players being "screed in" as Newfoundlanders by Captain Sandy, made for the beginning of new friendships.

Monday dawned a beautiful day and the play got underway. One player started down number one fairway, hit her ball so hard it struck and killed a seagull. Play was suspended as the grounds crew removed the bird which gave the player time to compose herself before continuing play.

As the last several groups were finishing, preparations were made for a possible playoff. With the third last group finishing, rumours of a very fine net score on its way to the scoring table, all thoughts of a playoff for teams or the Keri Cup were dispelled. Norma Butler of Newfoundland #1 team finished with a net score of 67 which won her the Keri Cup and gave the #1 Newfoundland team of Elizabeth Murphy, June Skanes and Norma Butler, from the host club Bally Haly, a total net score of 215, eleven strokes better than their nearest competitors. Finishing in second place was the Nova Scotia team #1 from Digby Pines Golf & Country Club at 226 and they were followed by the Alberta #2 team from Canyon Meadows Golf Club at 235.

Sincere thanks was given to Cynthia Landrigan of Bally Haly for making the necessary arrangements in St. John's and to Labatt Breweries of Newfoundland, United Distillers Canada Inc, the Bally Haly Board of Directors and the club members for the success of this championship.

Marathon Day of Golf

On September 4th Jerry Oxford, Rob Efford, Colin Imrie and Geoff Whalen played 144 holes or 8 rounds of golf in one day. They raised over $1200 in aid of the Cancer Society.

The Bally Haly Match Play Champion was Rob Efford who defeated the defending champion Bill Hryniw. The Medal Play Champion was Dave Dyer who captured the title for the second year in a row. He recorded a 228 total, one stroke ahead of Dave Roberts. Bill Sparkes defeated Mike Chalker in a playoff to capture Division C honours after both players had 241 totals. The year long Captain's Challenge competition was won by Harold and Richard Squires.

Holes-in-One were recorded by Rayner Lamb on June 15th on the 5th hole with an 8 iron from 167 yards and witnesses were Leo Barry, Larry Gushue and Jed Long, by twelve year old Adam Hill also on the 5th hole from 153 yards with a 3-wood and witnesses were Steve Boland and Dave Ennis, by Bob Tilley on the 8th hole, by Geoff Whalen on the 140 yard 15th hole and witnesses were Philip Thorne, Jim Long and Charlie Norris and another hole-in-one by Robert Whelan.

At the conclusion of play after three days at the Harmon Golf Club, the amateur champion, winner of the Air Nova / Air Canada trophy and CLGA silver tray, was Kathleen Jean of Harmon. First runner-up was Jill O'Neill from Bally Haly and in third place was Brenda King of Harmon. The fourth member of the Provincial team was Dianne Buckle of Blomidon.

The Senior champion, winner of the Win McNamara cup and CLGA silver tray, was Elizabeth Murphy from Bally Haly. She was followed by Pauline Myrden of Blomidon, Edith Dean of Grand Falls and Linda Colbourne from Pippy Park. These four ladies will represent Newfoundland at the National competition.

NEWFOUNDLAND AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

Defending champion Rob Efford leads the field after the opening day of play in the Newfoundland and Labrador men's amateur golf championship at the Bally Haly Golf Club. Efford, a 22 year old Bally Haly golfer who will turn professional next year, carded a one over par 72 on a wet course Thursday, giving him a one stroke lead over Mike Mullins of Blomidon. The weather was such that only 99 of the 156 entered in the tournament completed their rounds. Play was suspended at 2:30.

Mullins was followed by several Bally Haly golfers, Harold Squires at 74, Kelly Potts, Bill Hryniw and Eddie Bearns at 75 and Steve Bragg and Eric Moulard at 76. Also at 76 were Glen Burke of Harmon and George Dolomont of Blomidon and at 77 were George Chaulk of Harmon and Dave Hong and Chris Hart, both from Bally Haly. The top four finishers will make the provincial team Willingdon Cup team that will compete at the Canadian Amateur Championship in Victoria, August 18 to 21.

After two rounds of play defending champion Rob Efford continues to lead the provincial Amateur championship. Efford's two over par 73 gave him a one stroke lead over Glen Burke who shot a superb one under par 70. Mike Mullins is in third place with a 148 total after shooting 75 and is followed by Dave Dyer at 151 after a 72, Bill Hryniw at 152 and George Dolomont at 154. Tied for seventh at 155 are all Bally Haly members Steve Bragg, Kelly Potts, Eddie Bearns, Chris Hart, Dave Hong and Rayner Lamb.

Glen Burke of Harmon realized a life-long dream in capturing the provincial men's amateur championship at the Bally Haly Golf Club. He finished the four day tournament with a 301 total, one stroke ahead of Bally Haly's Rob Efford. Coming into the final round, Efford led Burke by a single stroke. But Burke's 80 on a cold and windy Sunday was enough to gain the victory as Efford could only manage an 82. "It's a great feeling" said Burke of the victory, "It's definitely the highlight of my career. I've always dreamed of winning a provincial title since I played in my first junior tournament in 1974".

Former provincial champion Eddie Bearns of Bally Haly battled the weather to post a 73 the last day, the best score of the day. He ended in third with a 304 total. Dave Dyer of Bally Haly and George Dolomont of Blomidon tied for fourth at 306. Dyer won the subsequent playoff and grabbed the final spot on the provincial team that will compete in the National Amateur Tournament in Victoria, British Columbia in August. This is the 5th team for Burke, the 2nd team for Efford and Bearns and the 1st team for Dyer.

PROVINCIAL MID-AMATEUR & SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

Two Provincial Championships were held at the Blomidon Golf Course in Corner Brook. In the Mid-Amateur tournament Bob Skanes of Gander was the champion and he was followed by Tom Jones of Gander and Harold Squires of Bally Haly. They will represent this province in the National Mid-Amateur championship to be held next year. The team's first alternate was Walter Crotty of Tamarack and the second alternate was Bill Hryniw from Bally Haly. In the Seniors tournament the four golfers who will represent this province in the National Seniors Tournament in September are Don Bartlett from Blomidon, Rayner Lamb from Bally Haly, Yvon Morin from Tamarack and Rex Smith from Bally Haly.

Junior competitions were held throughout the year and some of the results are as follows.

BALLY HALY INVITATIONAL

The Bally Haly Invitational was held over the weekend and the tournament champion was Bill Hryniw of Bally Haly who defeated club mate Brian Withers on the first hole of a sudden death playoff after both players tied with 147 totals. In the rain Hryniw parred the hole after chipping to within two feet of the hole while Withers found tree trouble and could only manage to make a long putt for a bogie. In B Division Bill Williams had a 160 total to beat Ted Cooke and John Hopkins by one stroke. In C Division Ray Warren was an easy winner as he shot 161 and was eleven strokes ahead of Dennis O'Reilly and Glen Reid. Roger Roberts fired a 173 total to win D Division by one stroke over David Lush and Joe Stringer. All the scores are shown below.

BALLY HALY PLAYER OF THE YEAR

In 1995 the golf committee began an award for the Player of the Year and this was based on four competitions that were held at Bally Haly throughout the year, the Browning & Dickinson Tournament, the Invitational Tournament, the Match Play eliminations and the Medal Play Championship. Points were awarded for the top ten finishers in the three medal play events and the top sixteen players who qualified for match play. Points were doubled for the Medal Play Championship, which was considered the number one tournament of the year.

Competition was very fierce and the winner was not decided until the final round of the final tournament was completed. At the end there was a tie for Player of the Year as Dave Dyer and Jerry Oxford both finished with 57 points. The points breakdown for each of the competitions and the final standings are shown below.

By GARY KEAN
Star Staff Writer

CORNER BROOK — Despite the fact that the first couple of groups in the Air Nova/Molson Blomidon Invitational golf tournament were sent out to play in the early-morning rain on Sunday, clear skies and great fun ultimately prevailed.

When all was said and done, Steve Fisher of the Bally Hally Golf and Country Club in St. John's was declared the overall champion of the 240-man field. Fisher recorded the low gross in A division with a 36-hole score of 143.

Fisher actually had to beat Blomidon's Paul Harnett in a playoff hole to decide the championship after Harnett also finished with a 143 total.

Fisher said after winning the tournament that the Blomidon course has never been in better shape.

"The golf course was just perfect," said Fisher. "And the guys I played with were just super and played great."

Butch Barron of the Harmon Golf and Country Club in Stephenville was third in division A, just one stroke behind the pace set by Fisher and Harnett.

Barron was closely followed by Ross Cole from Grand Falls-Windsor and Harmon's Glen Burke, who both had 145s.

Gary (Giggs) Dunville and George Chaulk, both from Harmon, had two-day totals of 148, while Blomidon's John Meaney shot 149.

Blomidon's Al Reid recorded the low net in A division with a 36-hole net score of 130.

In division B, Blomidon's Mike Grabka's 155 low gross was tops.

Grabka was closely followed by Carl Loughlin of Blomidon and Derek Benson of the Admiral's Green Club (Pippy Park) in St. John's, who were one and two strokes off the pace respectively.

Blomidon's Bob Matthews recorded a 159 two-day total and was just ahead of Dan Davis from Grand Falls-Windsor and Bally Hally's Bruce Chaulk, who both shot 160.

Blomidon's Marvin Barnes recorded the low net in division B with his score of 129.

Jim Basha from Blomidon took the top low gross prize for C division play with his 154 two-day performance.

Basha edged out clubmate Rick Solo by two strokes and bettered Harmon's Guy Roy by five shots.

Tyrone Power and Junior Wight both shot 163 to round out the top five golfers in C division.

Blomidon's Jack Barriault and Frank Ryan had C division's top net scores with a 36-hole total of 126.

Carl Curlew was the best golfer over the weekend in D-division play. His 162 was nine strokes better than his nearest competition, namely Chesley Cribb of the Grand Meadows Golf Club in Marystown.

Cribb finished one stroke ahead of Blomidon's Peter Hiscock and was two shots in front of Robert Johnston from Bally Hally.

Clayton Reid and Bob Jaynes, both from Blomidon, shot 173s to round out D division's top golfers.

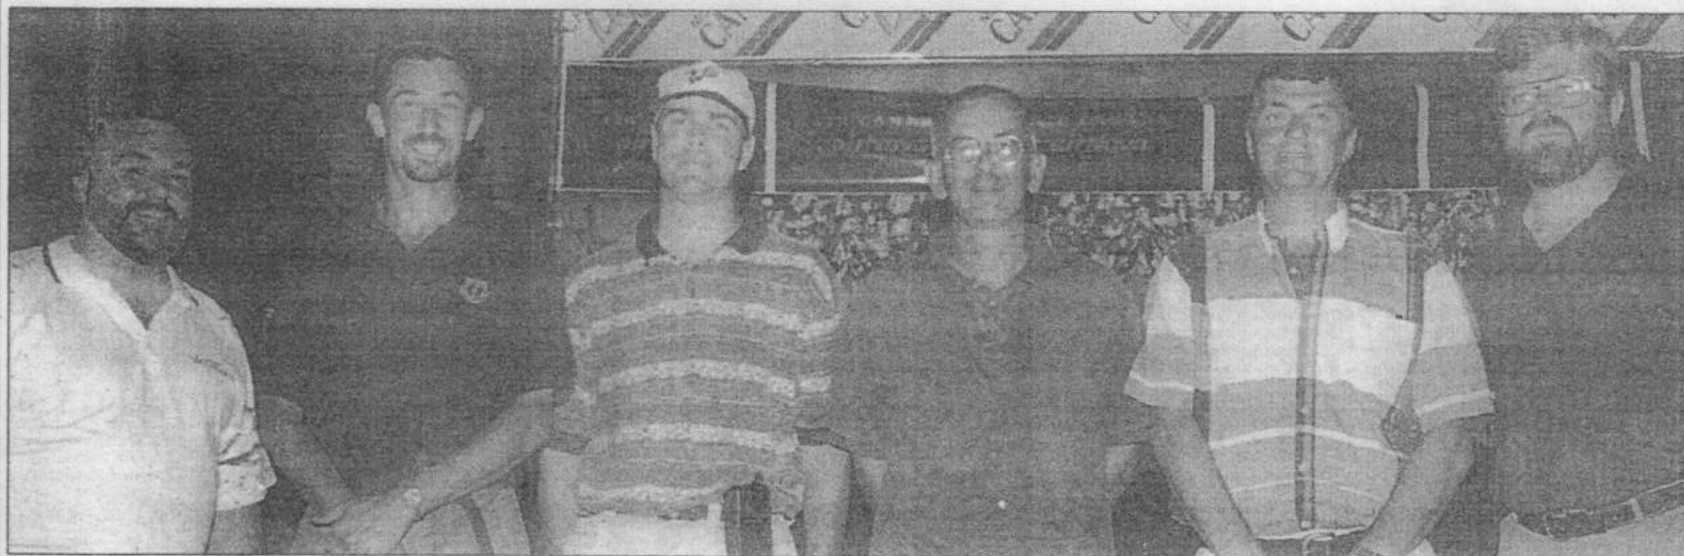

Paul Wight's net score of 121 was lowest in D division.

The top low gross winners in each of the four divisions won a set of golf clubs, while the top eight low gross and low net scores in each division also won prizes, which ranged from golf clubs to golf hats and shirts.

There were also three draws for trips-for-two to Florida, Montreal and Prince Edward Island, compliments of Air Canada/Air Nova.

Harmon's Guy Roy won a golf bag and Carl Loughlin of Blomidon won a 50/50 draw for being the closest to the pin on hole No. 8 on Saturday and Sunday respectively.

Another highlight of the tournament was a hole-in-one on No. 6 Sunday by Harmon's Dan Soucy. The Blomidon Golf and Country Club presented Soucy with a jacket in honor of his accomplishment.

Chris Rooney of St. John's has proved to himself and others that golf is not just for older folks anymore. The 22-year-old recently won the Bally Haly club championship and also took the club's match play title. He is among the many young golfers who have taken to the sport in the past number of years across the province.

Young golfer on par with the best of them

By MARK DWYER
The Evening Telegram

There was a time, not too long ago, when golf in Newfoundland was portrayed by most as a rich gentleman's game played among the older folks.

"When I was younger, I looked at golf as a game for old guys in knickers. I know that sounds stupid, but it's true," said Chris Rooney, 22. "I'm sure a lot of younger people viewed golf the same way. I did."

Ironically, Rooney's 'ignorance' of the sport took a dramatic change just following his 15th birthday.

"My father (Jim) asked me one day if I was interested in playing. I just laughed and said golf was for pansies," joked Rooney. "I played hockey growing up. Golf never crossed my mind."

But Rooney did take his father up on the offer and the rest, as they say, is history.

He is now among the province's top young golfers and his outstanding play at Bally Haly Golf and Curling Club this past summer can attest to that.

Rooney won the Bally Haly club championship and also captured the club's match play (head-to-head competition) title.

"I guess I had a pretty good year, considering the slow start," said Rooney, referring to a "brutal" showing at the provincial championship in Corner Brook. "It's an honor to win considering most of the people I'm playing against are very good."

Actually, the competitor Rooney beat out for the Match Play championship was another youngster in the sport, 19-year-old Jason Hill.

"That's proof that golf is becoming more popular with younger people," said Rooney, who lists Pippy Park's windy 18-hole Admiral's Green as the toughest course he's played. "I can really see the difference now from when I first started playing... there are a lot more younger people getting involved."

Rooney's play in 1996 didn't surprise local golfing enthusiasts. He's been a standout since Day 1.

At 16 and a relative newcomer, Rooney won the 1990 provincial juvenile (under-16) title and later received a Canadian Junior Achievement Award.

In 1991, he finished fifth at the provincial junior (under-19) championship, and was second the following year en route to winning his second Canadian Junior Achievement Award.

"I was fortunate to have an excellent junior career, thanks to a lot of help from a lot of people," said the Antigonish, N.S. native who moved to Newfoundland at an early age.

Rooney lists numerous factors in the growing popularity of the sport, both provincially and nationally, including TV coverage and the attraction to young PGA phenom Tiger Woods.

"You're never satisfied in golf. If you shoot a 66, you think about shooting a 65," said Rooney, who hopes to some day earn a pro card and teach the game. "Golf is fun that way because you're always trying to improve. It's very addictive."

"Another great thing about golf is you can play it forever," he said. "It's a game you can play until you're 85. It's a sport for people of all ages."

Rooney and Hill are just a couple of rising young stars on the provincial golfing scene. Jason Flynn and Brad Gushue, both from St. John's, are two teens to watch in the future. Cathy Matthews of Corner Brook and Cathy Ennis of St. John's, who have both won provincial junior titles in recent years, have made names for themselves on the national scene.

"This is just the start of it," said Rooney.

"I'm sure you'll see more and more competitive and recreation golfers in the next few years."

Ennis agonizing over golf decision

Pondering scholarship offers from two U.S. schools

By BRENDAN MCCARTHY
The Evening Telegram

Trying to match the club for the shot was never this difficult for Cathy Ennis.

The young St. John's golfer is almost beside herself these days as she endeavors to decide which U.S. scholarship offer to accept.

"If you had talked to me an hour ago, I would have said 'Yes, I'm definitely going to Iowa State.' But I just got off the phone with the coach from Illinois State, and she was telling me all this fantastic stuff about the school about how they're planning a trip to Ireland next year," Ennis said Monday night. "Now, I'm back to not really knowing."

There was a time when Ennis was prepared to accept a partial scholarship from the University of Colorado, but after her 16th-place finish in the national junior women's championships this past summer, Iowa State began recruiting her heavily.

Their offer: a four-and-a-half year full scholarship worth

CATHY ENNIS

approximately $100,000 (Cdn.)

However, Illinois State has since matched that deal, creating a dilemma that's complicated by factors other than monetary ones.

Iowa State's women's golf program includes Corner Brook's Cathy Matthews, a good friend of Ennis's and a former teammate on the provincial junior women's team. Illinois State, on the other hand, has Nova Scotian Suzanne Walker, another good friend.

Both offer athletic therapy degrees which Ennis is anxious to pursue.

Both schools are roughly the same size (about 25,000 students) are situated in relatively small cities (Ames, Iowa and Bloomington, Illinois) just six hours away from each other.

"It's an amazing deal. I know things like this don't happen very often," said Ennis, the 1996 Newfoundland junior ladies champion. "Especially since they both have players that I know... it's important to me to be playing with fellow Canadians."

A betting person might lean towards Iowa State, coached by Julie Manning, the Big 12 coach of the year in 1996.

"And Iowa State is in a more recognized conference, while Illinois State is in the Missouri Valley Conference and that's sort of a big thing for me," admits Ennis, who has been surfing the Internet in search of information about the two schools and their programs.

"Academically, Iowa State's athletic therapy department is rated as No. 2 in the country. And they have a 100 per cent placement rate for their graduates. So I look at that and say 'Wow!'"

"But then I talk to the coaches and Suzanne at Illinois State and I hear all the positives about going there and I'm right back to being undecided."

"I know it's all part of the recruiting process, but I have two really good coaches and two good friends telling me very positive things. It's very, very hard to decide."

It gets even tougher as time passes. The more Ennis talks to the two coaches, the more she talks to her two friends, the personal stakes increase.

"I've talked to them for such a long time now that I've developed really good relationships. And that makes it even harder to make the final decision, because I don't want to let the other person down," she said.

Ennis is currently attending Memorial University, but is planning to attend the American school of her choice beginning in January.

She would be a redshirt player for the first half year, practising and training with the team, but not competing. She would begin using her four-year U.S. athletic eligibility next summer.

As a transfer student, she is not required to sign a letter of intent with either school. But in a way, that prolongs Ennis's happy agony.

"I've been making deadlines for myself, but unfortunately, I keep extending them," she said.

"I've been lucky because both schools have said they are being patient."

Her latest final deadline is this coming weekend, which means there could be a few more days of fretful indecision.

"But I'm not getting down about it," said Ennis. "For me it's a win-win situation. Either decision would be a good one. I just want to make the best decision and make it soon."

Ennis decides on Iowa State

CATHY ENNIS

Cathy Ennis of St. John's, already a whirlwind on the golf course, is becoming a Cyclone.

Ennis, a Memorial University freshman, has signed a letter of intent to attend Iowa State University on a full golf scholarship beginning in January.

She will begin training with the Cyclones ladies' golf team this winter, but will not begin actual competition in the Big 12 Conference until the 1997-98 season.

Her scholarship, which will be used in pursuit of a degree in athletic therapy, is for four-and-a-half years, but she has just four years of athletic eligibility.

The defending provincial junior ladies' champion and a six-time winner of the Bally Haly junior ladies' title, Ennis had also been considering attending Illinois State, but finally decided on Iowa State, whose golf team also includes Cathy Matthews of Corner Brook.

"It was a long, tough recruiting battle, but we knew we would never want to give up on this young woman.

"She certainly possesses all the tools and work ethic to be among the very best in the Big 12," said Cyclones ladies' golf coach Julie Manning.

"Signing her has capped a tremendous recruiting class for us, one that can help our program stay among the top in the conference. My closing thought is 'Wow!'"

Local golfer considering U.S. scholarship offer

All those windy days driving balls around open Pleasantville fields with his dad has paid off for Jason Hill.

The 18-year-old from St. John's has been offered a partial golf scholarship at Southern Wesleyan University in Central, South Carolina. And although he isn't "100 per cent sure" he will accept the offer, he admits the chances are good.

"It sounds like a great school. It's pretty small (about 5,000 students) and it's supposed to be a nice town," said Hill, who said he was offered about $4,000 of the $6,000 total fees (tuition, books, ect.). "It's exciting, but I'm going to check it out next month and see what it's really like."

Hill and his parents will fly to South Carolina Nov. 22 to visit the campus and decide then.

The young golfer applied to more than 20 division II U.S. colleges and received replies from 10. But it was Southern Wesleyan which showed the most interest.

"They wrote me about six letters and kept calling," said the Holy Heart of Mary graduate. "I talked to the administrator and the coach and they really want me down there. They kept telling me to call them."

A member of the Bally Haly Golf Club junior program for the past eight years, Hill has competed in seven provincial champions, winning the juvenile title three years ago and finishing runner-up to Matt Mitchell of Corner Brook in this year's junior championship in Grand Falls.

Hill placed 10th out of 40 golfers at the 1996 Atlantic championship and was 71st out of 140 at the nationals this year in Saskatoon. 11/11/96

Hill rising to new heights

Golfer accepts U.S. college scholarship

By BRENDAN McCARTHY
The Evening Telegram

For the second time in a week, a young St. John's golfer has earned an athletic scholarship to an American university.

Jason Hill, a three-time member of the Newfoundland junior men's golf team, will play for Southern Wesleyan University, a National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Division I school in Central, S.C.

The 18-year-old Hill and his father, Edgar, recently travelled to South Carolina to visit the school and to audition for the university's men's golf coach.

Hill played a round and so impressed the coach that he has been offered an athletic scholarship worth $3,000 (U.S.).

"I was told, depending on how I do, that (the scholarship) could be increased in the future. It could even double," said Jason, a graduate of Holy Heart of Mary High School in St. John's who plays out of Bally Haly Golf Club.

Hill actually made first contact with Southern Wesleyan earlier this year, slipping a resume in a request for information from the small (1,200-student) university. That set in motion a recruitment process which culminated in last week's tryout.

The Hills had to pay their way to South Carolina, but the cost of the trip will be deducted from Jason's tuition.

He plans to pursue a degree in business.

Jason had contacted other schools in the United States, but was impressed by Southern Wesleyan's golf program — they ranked seventh out of 150 schools in their division last season — and the knowledge that he would get to play a lot.

"With some of the bigger schools, it's tough to break in right away, because there is so much competition.

"This way, I'll probably play about 90 per cent of the time. That was very important," said Jason, who is "75 per cent sure" he will begin attending Southern Wesleyan in January.

The school has seven tournaments on its spring schedule.

Last week, Cathy Ennis of St. John's signed a letter of intent play golf for Iowa State University.

Ennis, another Bally Haly golfer, has received a full athletic scholarship to the NCAA Division I school.

On April 28th a letter was sent to the Board of Directors asking them to consider making Dr. Duncan Rice an Honorary Member of Bally Haly because of his many contributions to the club.

April 28, 1997

The Board of Directors
Bally Haly Golf & Curling Club
Logy Bay Road
St. John's, Nfld.

Dear Ladies & Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned, hereby propose Dr. Duncan Rice for Honorary Membership in Bally Haly Golf & Curling Club.

We cannot think of any other individual more deserving of this honor than Dr. Duncan Rice. Dr. Rice worked tirelessly on behalf of the membership of our club, as well as all Newfoundland golfers for the twenty-five years that he was a member of Bally Haly. It is safe to say that Duncan was Mr. Golf at Bally Haly and throughout the Province from 1958 to and including 1972.

Dr. Rice joined Bally Haly in 1958 and began working on the Golf Committee almost immediately. He was a member of the Golf Committee from 1959 to 1970 and served the membership as Golf Captain in 1964 and 1965.

Duncan had a very keen interest in golf course design and turf management, and while on the Golf Committee, he was chairman of the greens committee for a number of years. As chairman of the greens committee, he was instrumental in designing and constructing our present number fifteen, sixteen and seventeen holes. His design effectively eliminated three dangerous situations, which we had on our golf course in the mid-sixties. Duncan was also instrumental in instituting proper maintenance and turf management procedures with our greens staff and worked tirelessly in that area.

Dr. Rice became President of Bally Haly in 1969 and worked hard to improve the administration side of our club. Two points to support our claim of his interest: he was the first Golf Captain to propose a budget to the Board of Directors for the golf operation, and as we understand it, this was the first budget ever at Bally Haly. He also constructed eighteen tees in 1964 and 1965 as prior to that time all golf at Bally Haly was played from rubber tee mats.

In 1969, after many years of planning and lobbying, Dr. Rice brought national recognition to Bally Haly when he organized and chaired the first Newfoundland Open Golf Tournament in September of that year. The Newfoundland Open was a tournament for professional golfers, and brought professional participants from throughout Canada and the eastern United States. As a result, many Bally Haly golfing members had the exciting opportunity of playing in a Pro-Am golf event with a touring golf professional. This was a magnificent feat as nothing like this has had ever been done in Newfoundland before. Bally Haly received many accolades that the Newfoundland Opens conducted at our club were some of the best organized Professional Golf events in Canada. This is quite understandable as those, who knew Duncan Rice, appreciated that Duncan would not undertake anything he did not do well.

On the provincial golf scene, Duncan again represented Bally Haly with the highest degree of voluntarism as he was instrumental in organizing the Newfoundland Golf Association. Newfoundland, albeit a province of Canada since 1949, was not a member of the Royal Canadian Golf Association until the movement to form the Newfoundland Golf Association was spearheaded by Bally Haly's Dr. Duncan Rice. He was the association's first Secretary-Treasurer and held that position for nine years from 1964 to 1972. He organized, ran and won the first Newfoundland Amateur Championship in 1964, which incidentally was held at our own Bally Haly Golf Club. He was also Newfoundland's first representative at the Royal Canadian Golf Association and held that position as Governor for Newfoundland from 1965 through to 1970. Bally Haly's only other representative at the Royal Canadian Golf Association is our current Honorary Member Mr. Herb Feder.

Duncan was not only an excellent administrator and organizer in Newfoundland Golf, he was also an excellent golfer. His golfing record at Bally Haly is an enviable one indeed, which few golfers at Bally Haly have matched. His Bally Haly golfing record includes winning eight Mens Stroke Play Club Championships, and two Match Play Club Championships.

Duncan broke a lot of new ground in Newfoundland Golf and without his involvement, organizational skills, zeal for golf, as well as his pleasing personality and determination, golf at Bally Haly and in Newfoundland would have taken many more years to emerge.

Dr. Duncan Rice is presently residing in Essex, England where he retired to in 1983. Dr. Rice is currently seventy-five years of age and much to his dismay, is no longer able to play the game he cherished and to which he gave so much.

We, the undersigned, most heartily and sincerely recommend that the Board of Directors of Bally Haly Golf & Curling Club approve and extend its highest honor, that of Honorary Membership to a most deserving individual, Dr. Duncan Rice.

Sixteen-year-old win two national golf titles

Dustin Risdon of Strathmore, Alta. joined an elite group of Canadian golfers Friday when he claimed two titles at the Canadian junior/juvenile championships at Admiral's Green Club in St. John's.

Entered in the juvenile (16 years and under) division, the 16-year-old upstaged the entire junior (18 years and under) field to claim the title. Only four other golfers in the country have accomplished the feat.

"This is such a great feeling," said Risdon, after finishing the four-day event at 71-77-73-75 — 296. "There was a lot of pressure out there and I'm happy with the way I handled it. This is definitely my greatest golfing achievement."

Risdon finished three strokes ahead of David Hearn of Brantford, Ont., who had a 76 Thursday for a 299 total. Third spot went to Kurt Kowaluk of Lively, Ont, who finished four rounds at 303, while Jess Collinson of Scarborough, Ont. was fourth at 304.

The two Newfoundland who made the cut, both tied for a respectable 44th place at 322. Brad Gushue (84-86-74-78) and Jaron Flynn (81-87-79-75) are both members of the Bally Haly Golf Club.

Seventy-five of the 139 golfers who took part in the event advanced to the fourth round.

At the Canadian Senior Ladies' Championship the low gross team was Alberta with a 474 total and Newfoundland was tenth with 603 and their scores were: Marg Collingwood from Bally Haly 195 (99 + 96), Maxene Stead the Provincial champion from Admirals Green 195 (99 + 96) and Norma Butler from Bally Haly 213 (106 + 107). The low net winners were Manitoba with a 452 total and Newfoundland was tenth with 497 and their scores were: Collingwood 161, Stead 167 and Butler 169.

Local golfer's progress on par in South Carolina

By JOHN BROWNE
The Evening Telegram

Jason Hill's just a little homesick in South Carolina, but a little bit of NHL playoff hockey on television is helping him cope.

The 18-year-old St. John's native is in his first year of business at Southern Wesleyan University in South Carolina on a golf scholarship.

South Carolina is basketball and football country, but Hill found an NHL game on Fox television Sunday.

"It's pretty boring here. There isn't much to do around campus, but it's nice," Hill said during a break in his studies.

It's the first time Hill, a former junior club champion at Bally Haly and a former provincial juvenile champion, has been away from home and he freely admits he misses his friends.

He doesn't miss the Newfoundland weather, though. It's been in the low 20s almost every day since he arrived in a town called Central in January.

"I get to golf every day," he says, adding that getting to play daily has improved his golf game as much as 70 per cent.

As an example of his unlimited links time, he said he played 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday before putting in another four hours of practice. Of course, it's all free.

While he noted the constant practice and competition has helped his game a lot, he says he gets better coaching instruction "back home."

Hill said he started off "badly" but has improved quite a bit and recently finished third in a tournament.

"The guys on my team have helped me out. We help each other out, actually," he says.

Hill's five-man university team is a week away from the NAIA regionals. If his team, now ranked 27th, makes it to the top 25, it will advance to the national tournament in Oklahoma City in mid-May.

He hopes to get back home at the end of May.

Hill received $1,500 his first semester and that will increase to $2,000 next semester.

Right now, his four-year scholarship is worth about $4,000 per year and more with incentives, depending on how well he is doing.

The Holy Heart of Mary High School graduate, who has played golf for the past seven years, hopes to work as a golf pro one day.

"I've always wanted to do that," he says.

Hill wins Feder Tounament

On Sunday July 5th Jason Hill won his second club tournament of the year by coming from behind and shooting a great score of one under par 69 on the second day of the Herb Feder golf tournament. Major rain showers forced a delay of two hours before Division A could complete the last round. At the time of the delay with about six holes to play for the last group, Brent Avery was leading Hill by one stroke with four other golfers only two behind. But when play resumed, Hill came out flying and finished the last six holes in two under par while Avery ran into trouble, including completing the last hole in heavy rain. Hill shot a 144 total, five strokes ahead of Avery. In Division B Mark Blundon defeated Bob Pitcher in a play-off after both finished with a 157 total. In Division C the winner was Wayne Hamilton with 179, edging Paul Stokes by two strokes. The overall net champion was Ken Powers with a 129 total, four in front of Hamilton. HILL WINS TITLE

Jason Hill's golf game matched the beautiful weather Sunday, July 19th, as he came from behind to win the provincial Amateur golf championship at the Bally Haly Golf Course. He trailed Bally Haly club mate Brad Gushue by one stroke entering the fourth round and proceeded to shoot a four over par 74 to win the tournament with a 292 total. Gushue was second with a 295 total and was followed by Chuck Conley, from the Amaruik Golf Club in Goose Bay, at 296 and Steve Fisher from Bally Haly at 297. These four golfers qualified for the provincial Willingdon Cup team and will be representing the province at the Canadian Amateur championship August 11 to 16 in Montreal. This is the 2nd time on the team for Hill and Gushue, the 3rd for Conley and the 1st for Fisher.

The race for top spot was very close for nine holes the last day as Hill led Gushue and Conley by only one stroke. However, over the next four holes Hill pulled away by going only one over par while the other two ran into trouble and were both five over. Hill then proceeded to back up to the field with a bogie on 15, a double bogie on 16 and a bogie on 17. Clinging to a one stroke lead he birdied 18 to secure the victory.

The battle for the 4th spot on the team was also very close going into the final nine holes with about seven golfers within three strokes of Fisher but he shot a fine one over par 36 to lock up the last place. He beat Eddie Bearns and Bill Hryniw, both from Bally Haly, and Rick Sheppard from Gander by four strokes. These three players then had a playoff for fifth place and the alternate on the team. Bearns won the playoff on the 3rd hole.

The Provincial Champion in Division B was Otto Warren from Bally Haly with a 320 total and he was five strokes ahead of club mates Tony Manning and Eric Moulard. The Provincial Champion in Division C was Noel Flynn from Bally Haly with 337 and in second place at 351 was Tony Noel from Admiral's Green.

PROVINCIAL GOLF HALL OF FAME

ANNOUNCES FIRST INDUCTEES

The Newfoundland and Labrador Golf Association held its first inductions into the newly formed Golf Hall of Fame, July 17, 1998 at the Bally Haly Golf & Curling Club. The event was held in conjunction with the 35th annual NLGA provincial golf championship and the 90th anniversary of the Bally Haly Club.

Golf in Newfoundland goes back to before the turn of the century, however, it was not until 1964, some fifteen years after Newfoundland became a Province of Canada, that the Newfoundland Golf Association was formed and became a member of the Royal Canadian Golf Association family. The Newfoundland and Labrador Golf Hall of Fame was formed in 1998 under the auspices of the provincial golf association. The Hall of Fame honours the tradition of golf and is dedicated to the recognition of outstanding contributions and accomplishments in the game of golf in Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Hall of Fame Committee, representative of all areas of the province, chaired by Bruce Martin of St. John's and a member of the NLGA Board of Governors, consisted of Lorraine Moores of St. John's and a past president of the provincial CLGA, Gerry Angel Jr. of St. John's and current president of the NLGA, Greg Rumbolt of Gander and past president of the NLGA, Ross Cole of Grand Falls and 1996 provincial Mid-Amateur champion, Una Reid of Corner Brook and past president of the provincial CLGA, Fred Frampton of Corner Brook and past president of the NLGA and Edward Kent of Labrador City and a past member of the provincial Board of Governors.

Inducted into the Hall of Fame in the Builder Category were Herb Feder, Alex Powell, Cynthia Landrigan and Charles Cook.

Herb Feder served the NLGA for 25 years including 10 years as Newfoundland's Governor at the RCGA and was previously honoured by the RCGA for distinguished service in 1997. He is a resident of St. John's and an honorary member of the Bally Haly Golf & Curling Club.

Alex Powell of Corner Brook also served the NLGA for many years including two terms as President and 15 years as Rules Chairman for the province. He served the RCGA as a Governor for ten years. He is a member of the Blomidon Golf Club and is still involved in the NLGA as 1st Vice-President.

Cynthia Landrigan, a member of Bally Haly since 1943, went on to become the first female President in the club's history in 1980 and an honorary member in 1991. She served the Canadian Ladies Golf Association on the provincial and national levels for many years and chaired the first two National Championships of the CLGA ever played in Newfoundland.

Charlie Cook, a name synonymous with golf in Newfoundland for many years as the NLGA's Secretary-Treasurer and as the province's current Governor at the Royal Canadian Golf Association, is credited with being the driving force in bringing public golfing facilities to St. John's and area. President of the Public Golf Association in St. John's for nearly twenty years, he not only championed the Captain's Hill 9 hole course and the new 18 hole Admiral's Green course, but indeed was solely instrumental in bringing the RCGA's first National men's Championship to Newfoundland when the Admiral's Green course hosted the 1997 Canadian Junior and Junvenile Championships.

There was one inductee in the Builder/Player Category in the person of Dr. Duncan Rice. A native of England, he practiced medicine in St. John's for many years and played his golf at Bally Haly, where he served as Golf Captain and as President. Instrumental in founding and organizing the Newfoundland Golf Association in 1964, Dr. Rice served ten years as its first Secretary-Treasurer and five years as Newfoundland's first Governor at the RCGA. He could also swing the sticks as he indeed not only organized the first Amateur Championship held in 1964 but went on to win that first championship and also qualify for two Willingdon Cup teams. He is currently retired in Essex, England but visits occasionally to see his son Alistair who resides in Upper Gullies.

The Player Category saw four golfers being honoured as Rayner Lamb, Bill Morrissey, Bill Hryniw and George Chaulk were inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Rayner Lamb, a native of Montreal, first visited Newfoundland as a member of the Montreal Junior Canadians hockey team in 1956, unaware that the "rock" would become his home. A Newfie nurse in training in Montreal, Jacqueline Harnum of St. John's, was soon to change all that. He was the first golfer to win the triple crown of golf in Newfoundland in winning the Amateur, Mid-Amateur and Senior Provincial Championships. Lamb's championships have spanned thirty years and he has represented Newfoundland on four Willingdon Cup Teams and four Senior Teams. He is still very much a competitive player, resides in St. John's and is a member of Bally Haly where he currently serves as Golf Captain.

William "Billy" Morrissey started as a caddie at the Bally Haly Golf Club and rose to the pinnacle of Newfoundland golf, capturing the first of his two provincial Amateur Championships in 1973. One of the dominant players in provincial golf, he played on 10 Willingdon Cup teams from 1964 to 1984. He now resides in Toronto.

Bill Hryniw, a native of Windsor, Ontario, burst onto the provincial golf scene in 1976 and qualified for the Willingdon Cup team for the first of 13 times, including a record twelve consecutive years. He has captured four provincial Amateur and two Mid-Amateur Championships, 17 Bally Haly club Championships and numerous other provincial and club titles. Hryniw, who has qualified for 5 provincial Mid-Amateur teams, has also been Newfoundland's top performer at the RCGA National Championships, including an 8th place finish at the 1988 Canadian Mid-Amateur Championship. He has survived "the cut" and played the final rounds in eight National competitions. An engineer, he resides in St. John's and is still a member of Bally Haly.

George Chaulk, a member of the Harmon Golf Club in Stephenville, started winning provincial golf championships as a juvenile in 1971 and in 1998 captured his second provincial Mid-Amateur title. In addition to his Juvenile win he has won two Junior Championships, a record 5 Amateur Championships, including four in a row from 1978 to '81, two Mid-Amateur Championships and numerous provincial and club tournaments. Chaulk has represented Newfoundland on 3 Junior and 13 Willingdon Cup teams. At Harmon he has won ten club championships and presently resides in Kippens.

Katie Williams of Admiral's Green has repeated as the Provincial Junior Women's golf champion. She fired a final day 89 at Grande Meadows to win the title with a 269 total. Runner-up Anna Elkins of Blomidon finished at 297 after a 99 and was followed by Cindy Crawford of Gander at 300 after a 102 and by Bally Haly's Allison Crawford at 312 after shooting 104. These four golfers will head to the junior nationals in Unionville, Ontario from August 10 to 13. Meghan Coleman of Blomidon is the first alternate after recording a 105 and 322 total.

Brad Gushue sits atop the board going into the final round of the junior men's tournament with a 239 total, giving him a 17 stroke lead over John Kielty. Peter Batson and Tony Batson of Gander are tied for third at 258 just ahead of Mike Jones at 259 and Michael Masters of Blomidon at 261. In B Division Michael Kielty leads with 261 and is followed by Jeff Healey at 266, Brad Meaney and Greg Blackwood of Bally Haly at 269 and Andrew Pearcey of Bally Haly at 279. He recorded a four round total of 322 and finished 21 strokes ahead of Michael Jones of Amaruk. Tony and Peter Bartson of Gander and Michael Kielty of Deer Lake tied for third at 348. In a subsequent play-off Peter Batson and Kielty qualified for the provincial team while Tony Batson will be the alternate.

Gushue defends golf crown

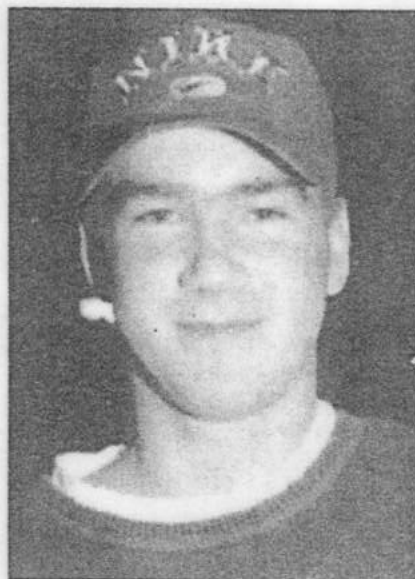

Brad Gushue of St. John's successfully defended his title at the 1998 provincial junior male golf championship Friday at Grande Meadows golf course in Frenchman's Cove on the Burin Peninsula.

Gushue, who plays out of the Bally Haly Golf Club in St. John's, recorded a four-round score of 322 to walk away with the title and top spot in the tournament's A division.

Gushue finished a whopping 21 strokes ahead of second-place Michael Jones of Amaruk Golf Club in Happy Valley-Goose Bay, who carded a 341.

Brothers Tony and Peter Batson of Gander Golf Club and Michael Kielty of Humber Valley Golf Club in Deer Lake finished tied for third spot at 348.

That tie meant a special two-hole playoff was needed to determine the provincial junior team. Peter Batson and Kielty, who also won the provincial juvenile title, made the grade and will travel to the national junior championships in Levis, Que., Aug. 18-21. Tony Batson will be the alternate.

BRAD GUSHUE

Gushue, who placed second overall at the provincial amateur championships last weekend, was pleased with his play at the junior event, especially considering tough weather conditions during competition.

"I started off slowly, I was only up two strokes after the second day, but I got things going," said Gushue, 18, who hopes to attend an American university this fall on a golf scholarship.

"There were winds up to 70 kilometres (an hour) blowing during the third round, but I managed to play pretty well and I was up 17 after the round. That was pretty comfortable."

The province's top junior golfer tied for 42nd overall at last year's national championships and is hoping to better that this time around.

"I wasn't pleased with how I played last year, so I'm hoping to do a little better this time," Gushue said. "Basically, I want to go out and have four solid rounds of golf and see what happens. My first two rounds last year were not that good, so this year I want to keep close and look for a good finish."

Brad Gushue shot a three over par 73 to claim the Benson Award at Bally Haly and was followed by Mark Tilley at 78 and Steve Boland and Jody Pike at 81. Allison Crawford claimed the W. R. Martin Award with a score of 96. Danielle Foley won the under 15 section with a nine hole score of 46.

GOLFERS BEST OF THE MONTH

Golfers Katie Williams and Brad Gushue were named St. John's Molson Athletes of the Month Friday at the Battery Hotel. Williams defeated defending champion Leigh-Ann Jeffcock of Nova Scotia in a playoff for the Atlantic junior women's championship held at the Admiral's Green Golf Course. Earlier in the month she defended her provincial junior women's crown by an amazing 28 strokes. She also won the first annual open ladies' Invitational tournament at Admiral's Green. Williams finished with eight first place votes and two seconds for a total of 46 points and soccer player Kristen Arnott was second with 19 points.

Gushue defended his provincial junior men's golf championship, finishing 21 strokes ahead of his nearest competitor. He also placed second to Jason Hill at the provincial Amateur championships. Earlier in the month he won the Benson Award as top male golfer at a Bally Haly club tournament. Gushue received three first place, four second place and two third place votes for a 29 point total, just one ahead of wrestler Glen Clark. Also receiving votes was Jason Hill.

NEWFOUNDLAND MID-AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

From August 14 to 16 the Newfoundland and Labrador Mid-Amateur Championship was held at the Harmon Golf Club in Stephenville. George Chaulk from Harmon started the final day one stroke behind the leader, club mate Rick Cook, but shot a great two under par 70 to win the tournament by two strokes over Steve McLean from Amaruk who started the day one behind Chaulk. After Cook had trouble putting on the front nine Chaulk and McLean battled for the lead the rest of the day with Chaulk ahead by one or two strokes most of the way. McLean was 71 for the day but that wasn't good enough as Chaulk finished two under par for the tournament. The battle for third and fourth, the last two spots on the provincial team, was also very close. Bill Hryniw from Bally Haly, the defending champion, and Gary Dunville from Harmon tied for third at 5 over par, only one ahead of Jerry Oxford from Bally Haly. Hryniw, with a final round 75, bogied the final two holes but managed to hang on for third place. Oxford made a great charge on the back nine shooting a two under 34, and 71 for day, including chipping in for a birdie on the last hole to pull within one stroke of fourth place. Dunville, who was in the final group and shot 77, recovered from a green side bunker on the 18th hole by making a 25 foot putt for par to avoid a playoff with Oxford. Third round leader Cook could only shoot 82 and finished tied for seventh.

The four team members who will travel to Calgary for the National Mid-Amateur Championship next year are Hryniw who is on his 5th team, McLean who is on his 3rd team and Chaulk and Dunville who are on their 1st team, even though Chaulk won this championship two years ago, he was unable to make the trip. Oxford is the first alternate for the team.

HILL WINS BROWNING & DICKINSON

On June 12 and 13 the Browning & Dickinson golf tournament was held at the Bally Haly Golf and Curling Club in St. John's, Newfoundland. There are 2 awards given, for tournament low gross, the "Browning Trophy" and for low net, the "Dickinson Trophy". This tournament also qualifies golfers for the match play championship in three divisions.

Jason Hill played fine golf over the weekend in rather strong winds. Hill shot a two over par 71 the first day and led Eddie Bearns and Dave Hong by two strokes. Hong quickly played himself out of contention the second day. Hill and Bearns battled the rest of the way. Bearns caught Hill on the 7th hole and took the lead on 8. Bearns remained one ahead until he bogied and Hill birdied the par three 13th. The lead increased to two by the last hole where Hill birdied and Bearns ran into tree trouble and had a double bogie. Hill shot a final round 74 and captured the Browning Trophy while Bearns was 77. Bill Hryniw managed to birdie the last two holes to finish in third place (76 and 76) along with Harold Squires (78 and 74). In fifth place was Ted Cooke (75 and 78) who was one ahead of Kevin Murphy (78 and 76).

In B Division the winner was Rollie Burke who shot 74 and 79 beating Steve Wedgewood by two strokes (78 and 77). Most of the day Burke led by three or four strokes. In third place was John Hopkins (77 and 81) and tied for fourth were Glenn Goss (77 and 82), Harry Crawford (82 and 77) and Dave Lawlor (79 and 80).

In C Division there was a very close battle as George Winters (85 and 91) beat Mike Wotherspoon (90 and 87) by one stroke, Ray Gushue (92 and 86) by two and Jeff Greene (89 and 90) and Bill Peach (91 and 88) by three. Wotherspoon took the lead on the 17th hole despite having an 8 as Winters made a 10. Leading by one on the last hole Wotherspoon had tree problems and shot a double bogie 7 to lose by one.

Ray Gushue was the winner of the Dickinson Trophy for the tournament low net with a 130 total, finishing just one ahead of Rollie Burke, Steve Wedgewood, Jeff Greene and Bob Byrne. They were followed by John Hopkins at 132 and Ted Cooke at 133.

NEWFOUNDLAND AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

The Provincial Amateur Championship was held at the par 72 Grande Meadows Golf Club from July 15 to 18 and 44 players participated.

July 16

Steve Fisher of Bally Haly holds down the top spot after the first round of the Provincial Amateur Golf Championship. He completed round one with a score of 76, one shot ahead of club mates Jason Hill and Brad Gushue. Hill is the defending champion. Jaron Flynn and Dave Hong, both from Bally Haly, are tied for fourth place with 78, two ahead of Steve Hawco from Clovelly.

In Division B, Keith Roberts of Grande Meadows shot an 83 to lead club mates Frank Dober and Ray Walsh by one stroke.

July 17

With a one under par 71, 19 year old Brad Gushue of Bally Haly took the lead in the Amateur tournament. The former provincial junior champion has a five stroke lead with a 36 hole total of 148. His 71 tied the course record that was set by Glen Burke of Stephenville in 1998. Gushue is being chased by a group of fellow club members. Steve Fisher and Jason Hill are tied for second and they are followed by Dave Hong at 155, Jaron Flynn at 156, Eddie Bearns at 159 and Keith Peters at 162. Frank Dober of the host club is the Division B leader. He added an 83 to first round 84 for a 167 total and leads club mate Ray Walsh by five strokes.

July 19

Brad Gushue captured his first Newfoundland Amateur Championship with a convincing win at the Grande Meadows Golf Course. He lead the tournament from the second round on and finished with a 301 total and seven strokes ahead of fellow Bally Haly member Jason Hill. There was a tremendous battle for the last two spots on the team and it came down to the last hole. Jaron Flynn from Bally Haly lead club mates Steve Fisher and Dave Hong by one stroke. However, Flynn got into tree trouble and could only manage a double bogie six while Hong recorded a par and Fisher missed his par putt and had to settle for a bogie and a tie with Flynn for fourth place. Hong finished the tournament with a 315 total, one ahead of Fisher and Flynn. On the first play-off hole Flynn could not get up and down from a greenside trap and Fisher was able to make an eight foot putt for par to capture the last spot on the Willingdon Cup team.

In Division B Ray Walsh recorded a 90 on the last day for a 351 total and came from behind to beat fellow Grande Meadows member Frank Dober by one stroke as Dober shot a 94 in the fourth round.

The top four golfers will represent this province at the Canadian Amateur Championship to be held in August in Kamloops, British Columbia. This is the third straight time on the team for Gushue and Hill, the second time for Fisher and the first time for Hong. All the scores are shown below.

OXFORD WINS FEDER TOURNAMENT

The fourth annual Herb Feder golf tournament was held on August 7 and 8 at the Bally Haly Golf and Curling Club in St. John's, Newfoundland. Jerry Oxford played very steady golf for most of the second day and claimed the title by shooting 70 and 73 on the par 69 layout. Sunday was played under very windy conditions. Oxford finished one stroke ahead of the first day leader Keith Peters who had rounds of 68 and 76. Oxford had a great front nine of even par 34 while all the other contenders struggled and he entered the back nine with a four shot lead. He played the next four holes in even par and increased his lead to six strokes. He then started to feel the pressure as he bogied the next four holes while Peters parred them. Peters, however, missed a 30 foot eagle putt on the last hole and Oxford secured the victory with a short par putt.

There was a tie for third place with a 147 total between Rob Collins (72 + 75), Eddie Bearns (71 + 76) and Dave Roberts (70 + 77). The top ten finishers in five club tournaments accumulate points toward the Player of the Year. The remaining players gathering points were Stephen Hawco Jr at 149 (73 + 76), Harold Squires at 150 (71 + 79), Bill Hryniw at 153 (76 + 77) and Dave Lawlor (74 + 80) and Bill Hearn (72 + 82) at 154.

The B Division winner was Bob Matthews with 75 and 82 and he finished just one ahead of Steve Wedgewood who shot 82 and 76. Wedgewood made a big run at Matthews as he picked up six strokes on him on the front nine as he shot an even par 34. Double bogies on 10 and 14 by Wedgewood gave Matthews a little cushion coming home and he needed it as he too felt the pressure and double bogied the last two holes and managed to win the by the slimmest of margins. The rest of the golfers in the top ten were Rick Woodford (78 + 83) and Trevor Critch (76 + 85) at 161, Mike Curran (78 + 84) at 162, Paul Maher (77 + 87) and Dave Butt (83 + 81) at 164, Tony Manning (84 + 81) at 165, Jim Davis (80 + 86) at 166 and George Osmond (84 + 83) at 167.

The C Division winner was Gordon Myers with 84 and 90. He was tied with Tom Sullivan with nine holes to go but picked up three strokes on the tenth hole when Sullivan recorded an eight. Sullivan came back to within one stroke with two holes to go but ran into more trouble and finished with a 7 and 8 and lost to Myers by four strokes, after shooting 83 and 95. They were followed by Michael Wotherspoon at 180 (92 + 88), Bruce Blackwood at 183 (90 + 93), Dave Fleming at 184 (92 + 92), Jim Peckham at 186 (98 + 88), Roland Manning at 187 (97 + 90), Kevin Walsh at 188 (96 + 92), Don Walsh at 189 (96 + 93) and Frank Manuel at 190 (90 + 100).

BALLY HALY LADIES INVITATIONAL

The 7th annual Bally Haly Ladies Invitational took place on August 14 and 15. With the field "sold out" at 180 participants, the largest ladies invitational in the province and one of the largest in Canada was underway. The tournament first began in 1993 when 76 golfers took part. By 1996 the numbers had grown to 180, the maximum field. Four competitive divisions and a recreational nine hole division make up the event. This year player participants came from as far away as Nova Scotia and British Columbia. Since inception, Molson Brewery and Canadian Airlines International have been the tournament major corporate sponsors.

Unique to this tournament is a variety of prints, photographs and original oil and water colour paintings donated by many well known local artists and awarded as draw prizes during the event. A special prize of a wicker basket containing silk scarfs, fresh cut flowers and wine is given to the participant who personifies goodwill and friendship during the event. This award is modeled after an award given at the first officially recorded ladies golf tournament held early 1800's in Mussleborough, Scotland. This year's winner was a well deserving Bally Haly member, Linda Bennett.

At this tournament, the Jacquie Goss Memorial Award is also presented to the golfer who participates in every aspect of the weekend long event, both on and off the course. Jacquie Goss, a long time committee member, passed away in 1995 after battling breast cancer. Each year a small fund raiser held during the tournament provides funds for the Dr. H. Bliss Burphy Cancer Treatment and Research Center - "Garden of Hope". This year the award went to Grand Falls member Anita Kelly.

FLYNN CAPTURES CLUB MEDAL PLAY CHAMPIONSHIP

On September 4th to 6th the club Medal Play championship was held at the Bally Haly Golf and Curling Club in St. John's, Newfoundland and Jaron Flynn played great golf over the last two days to capture the title. He shot 77 on the par 70 layout the first day and was tied for 14th place but exploded for 66 and 69 the last two rounds under windy conditions and won the event by seven strokes with a 212 total. Flynn started the last round with a slim one stroke lead but continued to extend his lead throughout the day, particularly with solid ground strokes and great putting. He entered the back nine with a six stroke lead and was never threatened. Rob Collins finished second with rounds of 76, 68 and 75 and ended up one ahead of Jason Hill who shot 73, 71 and 76. Completing the top ten were John Farrell at 227 (76, 79 and 72), Eddie Bearn's at 229 (75, 74 and 80), Harold Squires at 230 (71, 81 and 78), Barry Tilley at 231 (75, 80 and 76) and at 232 were Steve Hawco Jr. (75, 78 and 79), Walter Crotty (75, 74 and 83) and John Bidgood (73, 75 and 84).

HILL CAPTURES BALLY HALY INVITATIONAL

On September 11th and 12th about 200 golfers played in the Bally Haly Invitational held in St. John's, Newfoundland and the winner was Jason Hill, from the host club, who shot one-under par for the two days with scores of 67 and 72 on the par 70 layout. The competition was very close going into the last nine holes as Hill had a one stroke lead over Chris Hoyles, from the Gander Golf Club, and Jaron Flynn from Bally Haly, who had won the club championship the previous weekend. After bogies on ten and eleven, Hill fell one behind but caught up to the other two with a par on the 13th hole. Flynn bogied 14 and double bogied 16 after finding the trees and fell out of the lead. After exchanging bogies Hill and Hoyles reached the last hole all even. Hill then managed to birdie the 18th while Hoyles had a bogie to finish with 69 and 72 and was two strokes behind Hill. Brad Gushue, from Bally Haly, had a great final round of 68 to snare 3rd spot after a 74 Saturday and was one ahead of Flynn who shot 71 and 72. Rounding out the top ten are Dave Hong 73 and 74, Rob Collins 70 and 77, Bill Hryniw 73 and 75, Eddie Bearns 77 and 72, all from Bally Haly, Chuck Conley, from the Amaruk Golf Club in Goose Bay, 76 and 73 and Jerry Oxford 73 and 77 from Bally Haly.

Jason Hill has had great year winning two club tournaments, finished third in the Medal play championship, is in the finals of the Match play championship, will be the Bally Haly Player-of-the-Year for gathering the most points in Division A and was a member of the Provincial Willingdon Cup team.

The top players in B Division were all from Bally Haly and the winner in a very close battle was Paul Harvey with 79 and 80 and he edged Dick Hyslop 80 and 80, Keith Butler 79 and 81 and Glenn Trask 76 and 85. Harvey, Hyslop and Butler and were all tied teeing off the last hole and Harvey was the only one who managed to par the par five 18th. Completing the top ten were Gord Healey 82 and 81, Tony Manning 85 and 78, Joe Mills 83 and 83, Rick Woodford 85 and 81, Glen Reid 79 and 87 and Dave Hart 82 and 85. Steve Wedgewood has locked up the title of Player-of-the-Year in this division by winning the club championship and finishing second in two other tournaments.

Competition was also tight in Division C where entering the back nine Dave Flemming, from Bally Haly lead club mates Don Walsh by two strokes and Ray Gushue by three. But Fleming was only able to par one hole of the last nine and fell out of contention while Gushue played steady golf, 84 and 87, and beat Walsh by two strokes, 85 and 88. Fleming ended in third with 83 and 93. Rounding out the top ten were Don Bursey from Bally Haly 88 and 89, Edgar Dawe from Bally Haly 90 and 90, Jeff Benson from Clovelly Golf Course in St. John's 89 and 91, Harold Porter from Harmon Golf Course in Stephenville 95 and 85, Ed Heath 92 and 89 and Roland Manning 92 and 91, both from Bally Haly, and Bill Davis from Admirals Green in St. John's 90 and 99. NEWFOUNDLAND GOLF HALL OF FAME

September 24

The Newfoundland and Labrador Golf Hall-of-Fame had their 2nd induction ceremony this week at the Bally Haly Golf Club. Hall-of-Fame chairman Gerry Angel officially inducted Bally Haly's Kevin Murphy into the Player Category. Kevin is known throughout our province as a keen competitor and a fine gentleman, who is a great ambassador for the game of golf and the province of Newfoundland and Labrador. On the provincial golfing scene, Kevin has finished in the top 10 at the Provincial Amateur five times, including making his only Willingdon Cup team at the age of 54. However, it is in the senior competitions that he has compiled his most impressive statistics of 8 Senior team appearances and being the Provincial champion in 1997. He also competed in the National Crown Life tournament in 1983 on the Bally Haly team representing the province.

Also elected into the Hall-of-Fame, in the Player/Builder Category was the late Dr. George Grant from the Harmon Golf Club in Stephenville. He made the Willingdon Cup team in 1968 and 1969 but declined the second year in favour of a younger player. He was a member of 4 provincial Senior teams, from 1979 to 1982. But it was in the Builder Category that Dr. Grant made his greatest contribution. He served many years on the club's early executive committees, including first president, golf captain, tournament chairman, course manager and course Marshall. His knowledge of the RCGA Rules of Golf and his fairness to all golfers was renowned. He had a great ability to pass his golfing skills and knowledge onto the younger generation. Dr. Grant will be officially inducted at a later date.

"TURKEY TEAM TANGLE"

'Old Guys Still Have It'

Evening Telegram

The fourth annual Turkey Team Tangle, this year dubbed the Millennium War, has come and gone and the "old guys" have retained bragging rights for a fourth straight year at the Bally Haly Golf Club. The tournament, which was held this past weekend, pits the club's veteran members (a.k.a. the Dream Team) against the youthful talent (a.k.a. the Young Guns) in a competition modeled after the Ryder Cup. It started out being played every Thanksgiving Day, thus the moniker. On Saturday two team members play alternate shot match play and Sunday is single head to head match play.

This year experience won out over potential as the Dream Team edged the Young Guns by a total of 13 points to 11 points. "These days most of the young guys have gotten a lot better and they're getting closer every year," said Eddie Bearn, who at 37, helped the veterans have their day once more. "They got within two points this year and that's the closest by far they've ever been. What started out as a bit of a joke between the club's young and old members has turned into an annual ritual for bragging rights.

"A few years ago some of the young fellas were sitting around saying they'll beat us every time," Bearn recalled. "It started off with a little bet, but ever since then it has gotten more and more popular at the club." And when you get some of the province's best golfers – both young and old – together on the same course, you can rest assured each team will be trying their best to win. In fact, Bearn said the majority of competitors have represented the province at national competitions in the past.

"There is a lot of pride in our club with this tournament," Bearn said. "These young fellas take a lot of pride in it and we give them a hard time. It's getting more and more competitive."

The tournament started off with two division – under 30 years of age and over 30. However, because the Young Guns were taking such a knocking, Bearn said this year the age divisions were changed to under and over 35. At first the tournament featured teams of eight golfers, but this year each team had 16 members.

"The young guys are making plans already and are looking forward to next year," Bearn noted. "They beat us on the second day and they almost came back and won. The competition came down to the last couple of matches. They say they can whip our behinds, but we've won four years in a row. They could be there next year. They've improved a lot."

Still, here's betting Bearn and the rest of the Dream Team will settle for nothing less than title number five next year.

1999 AWARDS DINNER

On October 29th an awards dinner was held for the men, the first time such an event had taken place in about 25 years. The club President Dave Roberts gave the opening and welcoming speech and Garry Stamp was the emcee for the evening. Approximately 75 people attended and members of the golf committee handed out the various awards.

Prizes were given for the Browning & Dickinson and Feder tournaments, the Medal and Play and Match Play Championships and the Men's and Mixed Captain's Challenge Competitions. The Player-of-the-Year was announced in the three divisions. The outgoing golf captain, Rayner Lamb, introduced the first inductees to the Bally Haly Golfing Wall of Recognition. Bally Haly members captured nine of the twelve spots on the Provincial Amateur, Mid-Amateur and Senior teams and these players were recognized. Bill Hryniw introduced the Bally Haly history book that covers the first 50 years of the club's history. It was primarily written by a former member Frank Graham and put together and produced by Bill's committee.

GOLFING WALL OF RECOGNITION

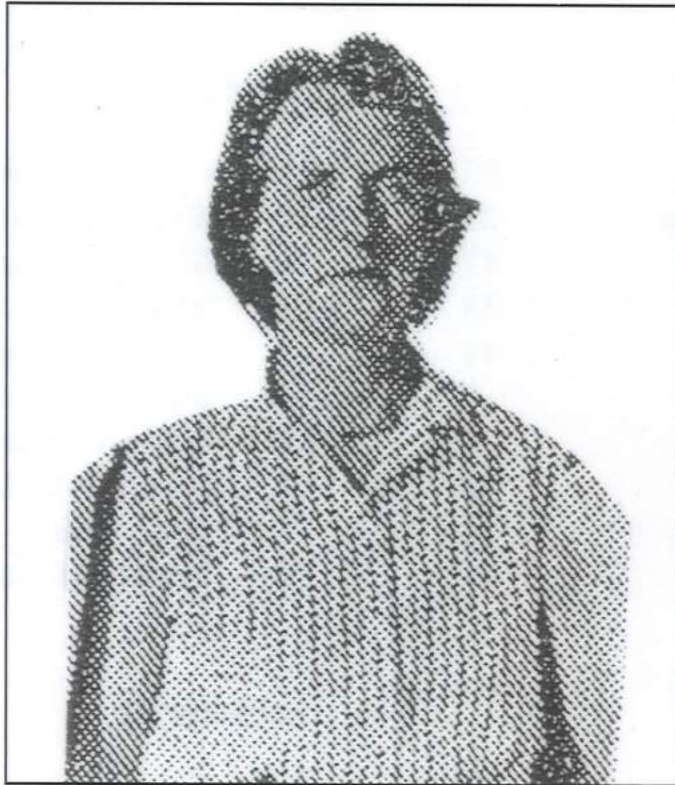

The purpose of the Wall of Recognition is to recognize and honour those members of Bally Haly, past and present, who have distinguished themselves by their significant achievement and success in golf at Bally Haly. This award was instituted in 1999 by the Golf Committee and the main factor in their selection was the number of club championships won.

The Committee felt that the inaugural selections to the Wall of Recognition should represent a balance between the past and the present, and male and female members. As a result, the Committee recommended that the first ceremony should honour four golfers to create the desired balance. The following candidates were the choice to be the first to be honoured for this award:

Tessa (Hutton) Shea

"Tessa Shea began her golfing career in the late 1930's. A true natural, she quickly established herself as a competitor to be reckoned with by winning her first Match Play Championship at the age of 22. Over the next thirty years, she dominated ladies golf at Bally Haly, winning a total of 39 club Championships. Her last win came in 1974 when, at the age of 57, Tessa won the Match Play Championship for the 21st time.

No other golfer at Bally Haly, male or female, past or present, has achieved the level of success in club championships attained by Tessa (Hutton) Shea."

Elizabeth Murphy

"Although Elizabeth began golfing in the mid 1950's, it was in the seventies and eighties that she established herself as the most dominant woman golfer at Bally Haly. During this period she won 13 Medal Play and 14 Match Play Championship. Three more championships in each category were added in the 1990's. Her accomplishments extend beyond the Club level as she has represented Newfoundland at least 15 times in national competitions at both the Amateur and Senior levels.

A staunch advocate of women's golf, Elizabeth has lobbied diligently for the rights of female golfers. With the escalating growth of women's golf in the 1980's and 90's, many feel that her efforts broke the ground for many of the changes at Bally Haly that the women members enjoy today."

Harry W. Dickinson

"A prominent athlete in the late 1890's and early 1900's, Harry Dickinson was accomplished in hockey, soccer and tennis. However, he was best known for his exploits in golf. One of the most proficient golfers ever to play at Bally Haly, Harry Dickinson won 27 golf tournaments during his playing career, including 12 Medal Play and 9 Match Play Championships. He won his last Match Play title at the age of 60. He won the Medal Play in 1916, 21, 23 to 29, 32, 33 and 36. He won the Match Play in 1924 to 30, 38 and 40.

Mr. Dickinson died on August 24, 1949 while playing in a mixed tournament. He collapsed on the 17th hole just after hitting his drive. Today his name is honoured through the Browning and Dickinson tournament."

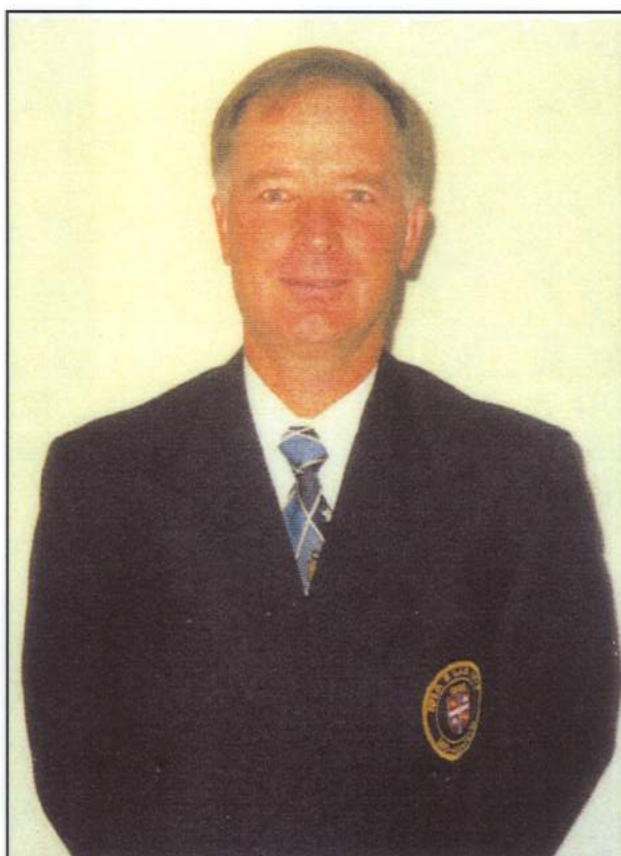

William (Bill) Hryniw

"Coming to Newfoundland from Windsor, Ontario Bill Hryniw joined Bally Haly in 1977 and immediately gave notice that he was a force to be reckoned with on the local golf scene. He won both Club Championships that year and since then he has gone on to win 17 Championships, including the Medal Play 5 times and the Match Play 12 times. He has won over 40 Club tournaments over the years, including the club Invitational twice, the Browning and Dickinson 9 times and the Early Bird 6 times.

A golfer with a reputation of being able to score from almost anywhere on the course, in almost any kind of weather conditions, Bill holds the current course record of 8 under par 63, shot in 1988.

At the provincial level, Bill has represented Bally Haly extremely well by winning the Newfoundland Amateur Championship four times, the Mid-Amateur title three times and various other provincial tournaments. He has been on the Newfoundland Amateur and Mid-Amateur teams 19 times. Nationally he has also performed well, winning the Atlantic Amateur Championship 3 times, made 'the cut' at the Canadian Championships 8 times and lead the field at the National Mid-Amateur Championship in PEI in 1988 after the first day and finished the tournament in 8th place.

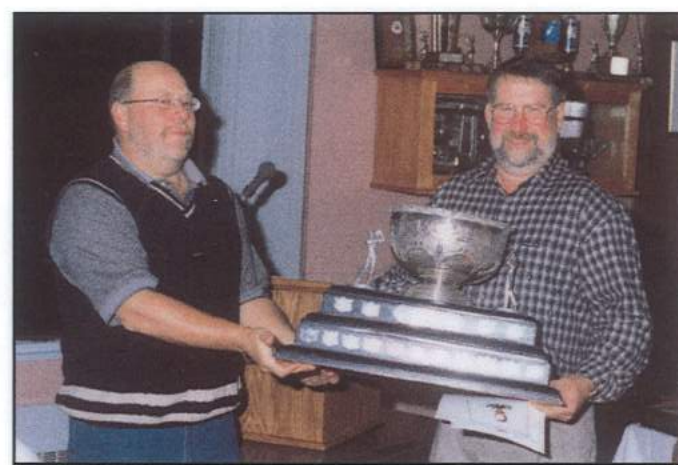

In 1998 Bill was inducted into the Provincial Golf Hall of Fame."
